

Positive Practice Environments

Key Considerations for the Development of a Framework to Support the Integration of International Nurses

Paper Commissioned by ICNM, January 2006

Elizabeth Adams INO
Annette Kennedy INO

Part I: Key Considerations

- Globalisation & International Influences
- Migration
- Labour Market & Nursing Shortages
- Immigration & Society
- Characteristics of Diversity
- Patient Care & Cultural Competency
- Experience of International Nurses in Employment

Part II: Supporting the Development of Positive Practice Environments

- Integration & Retention
- Challenges and Success Factors
- Intercultural Workplaces

The Impact of Migration in relation to:

- The Labour Market / Nursing Shortages
- National / International Agreements
- Society
- Patient Care
- Competency

Experiences of International Nurses

Towards Positive Practice Environments

- Strategic Approaches to Integration
- Key Challenges
- Best Practice
- Success Factors